What is an Academic Misconduct Investigation Panel (AMIP) at SLIIT?

The Academic Misconduct Investigation Panel at SLIIT is a Senate-appointed committee that investigates cases of academic misconduct, such as cheating, plagiarism, or other dishonest academic behavior. The panel ensures that each case is handled fairly.

Examples of Academic Misconduct:

- Cheating during exams or assignments
- Plagiarizing (copying someone else's work without proper citation)
- Helping someone else cheat or plagiarize

Please refer the Student Rule Book on Courseweb for more details :

Things to remember:

- The panel investigates the case and gives a recommendation.
- The final decision is made by the Senate , based on the panel's recommendation.
- Students are strongly encouraged to always follow academic integrity.

For more information on the Academic Misconduct Investigation Process, please refer the Student Rule book on Courseweb.
