

Education Loans

Support Admin - 2021-05-17 - General

How an Education Loan Works

Education loans are issued for the purpose of attending an accredited fee-levying Institute or a university to pursue an academic degree.

Education loans can be obtained from one's workplace as well as via private-sector lending sources such as banks.

You may require a Studentship Confirmation Letter along with semester payment details from the Institute to request for the loan facility.

Here are a few links that you can explore

Bank of Ceylon - https://boc.lk/index.php?route=product/category&path=87_165&catid=165

People's Bank - <https://www.peoplesbank.lk/wisdom-higher-education-loan>

HNB - <https://www.hnb.net/personal/loans/education-loans>

NSB - https://www.nsb.lk/loans_advances/nsb-buddhi/

NTB - <https://www.nationstrust.com/personal/borrow/nations-personal-loan>

Commercial Bank - <https://www.combank.net/newweb/en/personal/loans/education-loans>

Sampath Bank - <https://www.sampath.lk/en/personal/loans>

Seylan Bank - <https://www.seylan.lk/education-loan>

NDB - <https://www.ndbbank.com/personal/loans-leasing/ndb-education-loan>

DFCC - <https://www.dfcc.lk/products/education-loans/>

HSBC - <https://www.hsbc.lk/loans/products/education/>

Cargils Bank - <https://www.cargillsbank.com/products/education-loans/>

HNB