General timelines for Semester / Module registration and examination

Support Admin - 2025-06-10 - General

General timelines for Semester / Module registration and examination

CourseWeb is the primary communication platform through which official information is shared with students. All registration and examination timelines will be announced via notices on CourseWeb. Students are encouraged to use the Support Desk for any inquiries or assistance.

Below are the key registration and examination timelines and these timelines are provided as a general guideline and are subject to change based on institutional requirements and other specific situations.

Below are the key registration and examination timelines and these timelines are provided as a general guideline and are subject to change based on institutional requirements and other specific situations.

	Description	General timeline	January-June semester	July-December semester
1	Semester Registration	4 Weeks prior to semester commencement	December/January	May/June
2	Late Semester Registration (with Penalty Fees)	1 week into the semester commencement	January	June
	Semester commencement	NA	February	July
	Elective Registration	2 weeks after semester commencement	February	July
	Module Registration	3 weeks after semester commencement (latest)	March	August
	Mid Examination	8 week after semester commencement	April	September
	Final Examination	15 week after semester commencement	May/June	October/November
	Releasing provisional results	NA	July	December

AP/ Academic Affairs

June 2025